"THE TRAP" /

Phil, rushing to Ruth, grabs the trident in mid-air saving her from death. He has recovered the sacred Wampum Belt and Ruth puts it on. The professor sent for by the White Rider arrives and tells Ruth that there is only one man alive who can interpret the belt's inscription. That is old Lame Elk, chief of the Headhunters on Tiburon Island, in the Pacific. Ruth asks the Indians for permission to go to Tiburon and for an extension of three moons in which to make her decision. She calls the tribes together in the Council Chamber, innocent that Gray Wolf and the Medicine Man have arranged a trap that will precipitate her into the Golden Pool. Phil was caught overhearing their plot and was imprisoned. He cuts the binding ropes with a trident and makes an heroic dash to save Ruth, who has been crowded to the edge of the pool. She steps on the pivoted rock, the Medicine Man pulls the rope, and Ruth slips and falls. She grabs onto the rocky edge of the pool, but the Indians will not touch her for fear of the Wampum Belt, which she wears.
